

Proclamation

City of Norcross, Georgia

In Loving Memory of Edwin Moulder

WHEREAS: On behalf of the City of Norcross, we wish to extend our sincere condolences for the passing of lifetime resident Edwin “Ed” Moulder; and

WHEREAS: Ed's life will be remembered as one lived with honor, for having served his country with remarkable courage under General Patton, surviving the Battle of the Bulge and the D-Day Invasion of Normandy, and becoming one of the most highly decorated World War II veterans in the United States, a true American hero of the “Greatest Generation”; and

WHEREAS: Once returning to Norcross after service to his country, Ed will be remembered for having worked as a Master Electrician whose skills were appreciated for decades by Norcross residents; and

WHEREAS: Ed will be sorely missed by all who knew him, and especially by those on Barton Street, for whom he was a fundamental part of neighborhood life, offering friendship, humor, the use of his white pickup truck and the latest score for the Atlanta Braves, and his memories of what life was like, growing up in Norcross almost 100 years ago; and

WHEREAS: Ed leaves behind his dearly beloved family-of-the-heart, Peter and Michelle Crofton and their four daughters, whose sorrow at his passing reflects the entire community's, for the loss of this native son.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Mayor and Council of the City of Norcross recognize Edwin Moulder's many contributions to our community and country, we hereby express our deep appreciation for a life well lived and generously shared, and our condolences to those who he loved and to whom he was a friend.

Bucky Johnson, Mayor
